CYNTHIA NEVELS

Entrepreneurship,

Business and Technology Expert

"My years working and consulting in Silicon Valley for some of the leading software and Internet consulting firms taught me lessons in how to build strong and creative businesses," states Cynthia Nevels. As an adjunct professor, Cynthia has taught technology, entrepreneurship, marketing, business management and accounting for 13 years.

Cynthia has presented cutting edge research and presentations in London, Singapore, New York, Houston and Dallas.

CUTTING EDGE TECHNOLOGY

Cynthia is a female technologist who has worked for Siebel Systems (Oracle) and Keane CRM Consulting and has lead the way in developing, designing, integrating and launching cutting edge IT systems.

INNOVATIVE NEWS NETWORK

For over 20 years, Cynthia has been a columnist for national and local business journals and magazines covering business, technology, economics and finance. She is the host of a popular public radio program where she interviews disruptive and provocative business leaders who are changing their industries.

INTERNATIONAL SPEAKER

Cynthia delivers timely, impactful and informative presentations for global organizations, chambers and corporations.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS, HOUSTON

Week event eloquently delivering the speech, "Idea Rich, Equity Poor In America," stressing the need for consumers to have the tools to implement ideas fueled by capital and equity."

STEVE MARIOTTI FOUNDER NFTE

"Cynthia knows business and entrepreneurship. She has an unwavering passion for educating this country's current and future business leaders."

SABRINA PARSONS CEO PALO ALTO SOFTWARE

"The C-Radio Show was a great experience. Cynthia is an engaging and light-hearted host and I enjoyed speaking with

